

The Unforgettable Holiday

3B Tsui Paxton

December is always a festival month filled with happiness, love, and joy. This December was not an exception. I had a wonderful holiday with my family and uncle.

Firstly, I had a satisfactory school result that I am pleased with my progress. I will remember Miss Yau's advice and keep improving. My uncle also praised and gave me "Lai See" as a reward. I will see this as a motivating energy.

To enjoy a wonderful Christmas Day, we especially went to staycation at the Mandarin Oriental Hotel. It is a legendary hotel that is filled with Chinese and Western culture. I loved the amenities at the guest room and had a great bubble bath with my dad. The Guest Relations Team also gave me a stuff toy, a tiger with a Christmas hat. It is adorable and I named him Romeo. From now on, I always sleep with him every night. Also, I went to swim at the hotel. Although the swimming pool is small, I mastered to swim freely as almost nobody at there. My parents were amazing that I could swim in all four styles as I always told them that I don't want to learn swimming anymore.

Other than that, I shared my pair of helpful hands with my mom during the absence of my helper. I now managed to do some housework at home. Apart from assisting my mom to cook, I especially love to fold the clothes for the family. I like the tidy feeling at my lovely home.

An unforgettable holiday does not need a variety of exciting events. To me, it's about the inner joy and peace with my beloveds. I am glad that I had another amazing holiday in this December.
